

Social Media Policy

The Milford Public Library encourages participation on all of its social media platforms; however, we ask that users keep postings and comments appropriate for all audiences.

User content is the opinion of the specific author and does not necessarily represent the opinions of the Library. The Library is not responsible for the content posted by others on its social media platforms.

The Library reserves the right to remove any content that is deemed, in its sole view, to be inappropriate in nature. That includes, but is not limited to, posts that contain:

- Obscene content or hate speech.
- Personal attacks, insults, or threatening language.
- Private or personal information, including phone numbers and addresses, or requests for personal information.
- Potentially libelous statements.
- Plagiarized materials.
- Commercial, political, or religious messages unrelated to the Library or its social media postings.
- Solicitation of funds.

The Library reserves the right to block or ban users who violate this policy.
